

S. Anselm's

Leavers' Destinations

S. Anselm's prides itself in teaching to a very high standard so that upon leaving the Preparatory School, our pupils may move on to a school that most suits them. Each year, our leavers enter some of the most prestigious schools in the country, including S. Anselm's College.

“The school's namesake, the 11th century S. Anselm, was famed for his scholarship and independence of mind, so it's no surprise that leavers depart for the UK's top senior schools.”

The Week Magazine, Best of the Best Preps (2017)

What Senior Schools say ...

“We have always rated S. Anselm's pupils highly at Oundle: down-to-earth, hard-working and with parents who generally share our vision of education.”

Mrs Sarah Kerr-Dineen, Headmistress, Oundle (2019)

“The traditional all round ethos nurtured in this jewel of Derbyshire's schools is excellent preparation for the palate of opportunities offered at a school like Uppingham. Uppingham values its excellent relationship with S. Anselm's: the values and ambition developed at Prep School sees S. Anselm's children thrive here.”

Mr Charlie Bostock, Registrar, Uppingham School (2019)

“Over many years S. Anselm's has been a key feeder school for Shrewsbury School, and we have welcomed dozens of terrific pupils to Shrewsbury. They fit in easily to our boarding community, and many move on to leadership positions within the school – this year a former S. Anselm's pupil is house captain of one of our boys' houses, and another is house captain of our girls' houses. The pupils arrive with a ‘work hard, play hard’ approach that serves them well at Shrewsbury.”

Mr Martin Cropper, Director of Admissions, Shrewsbury School (2019)
